Course overview

This course will equip learners with a detailed understanding of education and training, including equality and diversity in the context of education and legislation and guidance that helps promote this.

Learners will also look at roles, responsibilities and relationships in relation to education and training, inclusive teaching approaches, assessment methods and how to design and deliver great virtual learning.

Learning method

Studying via distance learning means you can choose when and where you study. We ensure you get all the support you need throughout your course in the form of a personal Tutor and a Learner Support Advisor.

This course is available:

 Online

All of our award-winning learning resources are of the highest quality and are designed to be engaging and interactive to keep you focused on your learning at all times.

Who is suitable?

This qualification is aimed at anyone who wishes to attain an introductory teaching qualification, which prepares learners for teaching or training in a wide range of contexts. Learners are not required to be in a teaching position to complete this course. The qualification is suitable for individuals who wish to teach in the Further Education and Skills Sector and forms a foundation for those with little or no previous experience of teaching or training. This qualification is suitable for learners aged 19 or above.
